

MUSKOKA

Best Fall Colours in Canada

Muskoka was named by the Huffington Post as the best place in Canada to view fall colours, and it is right in your backyard to enjoy! Although a little late this year, they are sure to be spectacular.

Below are some of the best places to view the fall colours:

Gravenhurst

Lookout Park

Peninsula Trail

Unique to Gravenhurst, visit the Tree Museum, an outdoor art exhibit that brings you up close and personal to the fall colours

Bracebridge

Strawberry Point Trail and lookout

Downtown Muskoka at the Silver Bridge and Bracebridge Falls, one of the trademark sights of the community (pictured above)

Township of Muskoka Lakes

Huckleberry Rock Lookout

Hardy Lake Provincial Park

Lake of Bays

Dorset Fire Tower

Oxtongue Rapids Trail

Huntsville

Big Bend Lookout and Stubbs Falls at Arrowhead Park

Lion's Lookout Trail